

Everyday Is New

Tanita Tikaram

So far from home, is how life has been
I let the blues creep inside me
Oh, how they would hide me

But sadness and loss I hope they can see
Now that my heart's singing to you
Where you are
Everyday is new, everyday is you

I hear your heart singing to me
'Cause where you are
Everyday is new, everyday is...

I can't spend all my time
Just feeling let down
I can't spend no more time
Just hanging my head down

When it's so much better
To feel your love
So much better

So many years, I let pass by
Watching the sun in the morning
Without feeling the warmth on me

Now that I need, is all that I trust
I hear your voice singing to me
Where you are
Everyday is new, everyday is...

I can't spend no more time
Feeling left out
I can't spend no more time
Just, never working it out

When it's so much better
To let your love in
So much better

Yeah, yeah
I hear your voice singing to me
'Cause there you are, there you are
I hear your voice singing to me
'Cause where you are
Everyday is new, everyday is you
You
Everyday is you
