

Light Up The World

Tanita Tikaram

Thinking back, could I feel much older?
And my stance couldn't feel much colder
Can they tell what I'm getting over now?
In the park, I've seen you walking
And in my dreams I've heard you talking
Can they tell what I'm getting over now?
'cause you light up the world
Yeah, you light up the world
In this time and times to come
I do not know if your hopes have won
I do not know where you think, you'll find it
And I do not care if I fall behind
Thinking back, I was so much younger
Thinking back, you were so much more tender
Thinking back, will it make me hunger now?
For you, light up the world
Yeah you, light up the world
Well, there's somethin' about the girl
There's somethin' about her world
There's somethin' for everyone
Have you found yourself in the frame of mind?
Where no-one can be too kind
And there's so little lost
There must be a life to trust there
And if I try I know, I'll be there
And hold and be mine
For you, light up the world
Yeah you, light up the world
Oh, there's somethin' about the girl
Yeah, there's somethin' about her world
Oh, there's somethin' for everyone
Somethin' for everyone
