

Celebration

Tank

Now is a celebration
Oh girl lets celebrate
Yeah it's a celebration
Oh girl lets celebrate
Baby tonight I'm yours
Baby come on in and wrap your gift
Know you can find it in stores
Some tailormade for you

It's oooh, ooooooooooh
You don't wanna miss this it feels like it's Christmas
Like ohh, ohhhhhhhhhh
Yeah its a holiday but I'm open for business
We got a bottle of that Rose
Baby we gon celebrate
Make it feel like its your brithday
Baby girl lets celebrate
Party after party I cant wait to celebrate
All up on your body
Baby your my sensei
Baby 4th of July
Right between your thighs it's like fireworks
Just light up the sky
Don't need no reservation your my invitation
To this love making
This a celebration

When you last close the door
Lets teach you this sex education
Since you passed every course
Hats off to your graduation
It's like oooh, ooooooooooh

How'd I do how'd I do, baby tell me how you feel
They say real girls ain't never perfect, perfect girls ain't real
I'd I agree, but I guess we'll just wait and see Cause I swear you act like perfect is the only way to be Nothing matters 'cept for you, don't let no one out here blind you
Don't remember why you love me, please allow me to remind you
And I know you left me once, but I came right back to find you
Even though I like being in your past you got a bright future behind you
Oh, damn, oh
Girl I must admit I look amazing next to you
Girl you crazy, sexy, cool and you stayed obsessed to school
But that's good, cause you know that them grades impress me too
And my free days are just for you, but I don't get many
Its like every time we spend time, it feels like the first time
Cause we never spend enough time, you catch me at the worst time
It ain't like your not worth time, just I don't control it
But tonight I made it happen just to celebrate the moment
Give it up one time
