

Feast Of The Devil

Tank

I have crossed the bridge that leads to shadows
I have chased the nightmare to the end
I have sailed the seven seas of wonder
Left a trail of misery behind
If it all goes wrong will you hear the song I'm singing?
If it all goes wrong will we hear the church bells ringing out?

We'll dance of the feast of the devil
We'll dance at his feast.

Careful what you wish for when you are dreaming
We all can see the fantasies with time
Don't believe a word that they are saying
Hide behind the circles of you mind
If it all goes wrong will you hear the song I'm singing?
If it all goes wrong will we hear the church bells ringing out?

We'll dance of the feast of the devil
We'll dance at his feast.

Tick tock the end is drawing nearer
And we are filled with doubt.

Now we've seen what happens to the liars
Now we know the guilty will survive
Come with me I can make you holy
In this world of make believe. Surprise!
If it all goes wrong will you hear the song I'm singing?
If it all goes wrong will we hear the church bells ringing out?

We'll dance of the feast of the devil
We'll dance at his feast.
