

(he Fell In Love With A) Stormtrooper

Tank

Why does everybody laugh? They just won't understand
When she walks down the street why they're tearing apart a poor broken heart
She's the nicest woman you could meet, she don't know what he's supposed to be fighting for
She don't know that it's the last thing he'll say to this world
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto rmtrooper,
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto
rmtrooper
He's always spewing his guts out, he knows it won't stop. He al ways gets the bottle but not the last drop He gets out of the sun and the enemy lines but no one knows wha t he does between the landmines He don't know what he's supposed to be fighting for He don't know that it's the last thing he'll say to this world you but you
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto
rmtrooper,
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto rmtrooper... Yes he did, yes he did
Why does everybody laugh? They just won't understand
When she walks down the street why they're tearing apart a poor
broken heart
She's the nicest woman you could meet, she don't know what he's supposed to be fighting for
She don't know that it's the last thing he'll say to this world
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto
rmtrooper,
He fell in love with a stormtrooper, He fell in love with a sto
rmtrooper
