I Still Believe

Ooh oh yeah, can I get something off my chest

Ooh Um hmm Every now and then I think of all the times we shared your the only one who lets me know you really care I miss you more and more and day by day it's hard to see just how you love me so and everything you gave to me

I still believe, I believe in you and me And that one day we will be together and I know it sounds strange to you but I never moved on cause my heart wouldn't let you go until I let you know I still believe.

I can barely remember the time the time we were caught in the rain how you took my hand and you said I have things to say It's the little things that makes me stronger everyday I don't know if you hear me somewhere I hope your listening.

Your the only one (be the only one) who shined a light into my life. Took me from where I was and lead me toward what was right.
