

Lay Down My Life

Tank

Everybody says love is blind?
Is this what they ment?
I'll give everything all my time,
Do you even notice?
Girl, if just read my mind
You would see I'd do this all again.
But baby if you're listening.

There's no limit to love,
I'll show you there's nothing I won't do,
Anything just to please you.
I ain't never gon' complain, baby
All I'm really tryna say give me nice to see recognize.
Then I'll lay down my life
Hey, ey then I lay down my life
Then I lay down my life.

Baby, looking back no regerets
For all that we've shared.
Responsabilities ever meant
All a part of a plan
Cause I'm here to care, protect
Provide my love to you.
But I may?
One day you'll be count on me.

There's no limit to love,
I'll show you there's nothing I won't do
Anything just to please you.
I ain't never gon' complain baby
All I'm really tryna say give me nice to see recognize
Then I'll lay down my life
Hey, ey then I lay down my life
Then I lay down my life
