

Phoenix Rising

Tank

And the cradle will rock and all the world's my stage
Yes the cradle will rock and all the world's my stage
As the dream comes alive, hunters are on the prowl
As you cling to the past now's the time's the hour
You and I could be enemies (anywhere)
All we see is light
There is a world you will never see.

We scream the phoenix is rising
We scream as the world goes to war.

Can you see in your mind all the things we've lost?
When the bible is torn from the man who had it all
It's the greatest of lies now you hear my voice
Screamin' so loud so loud above the noise
You and I are magical
Yes you and I can fly
You and I are magical.

We scream the phoenix is rising
We scream as the world goes to war.

You feel the power of the hunter creepin' up on you
But there's nothing you can do
You feel the past calling its crawling its deep inside your mid
Its over and over and now the ends in sight.

And the cradle will rock and all the world's my stage
Yes the cradle will rock and all the world's my stage
As the dream comes alive, hunters are on the prowl
As you cling to the past now's the time's the hour
You and I could be enemies (anywhere)
All we see is light
There is a world you will never see.

We scream the phoenix is rising
We scream as the world goes to war.
You and I are magical
Yes you and I can shine
Always believe in your world.
