

Stalingrad (time Is Blood)

Tank

Time is blood.
Just one look, at the winter skies,
Just one look, into a dead man's eyes,
Just one look, at the waste of life, motherfuckers,
Just one look, as day follows night,
Just one look, and see through the sights,
Just one look, and watch bullets bite, motherfuckers.
Keep reloading, keep'em coming,
Running out so fast, of bastard ammo,
Keep reloading, debris flying,
Keep reloading, they are dying with every bastard shell, no.
They will never take Stalingrad, time is blood,
They will never break Stalingrad.
Just one look, and see Pavlov's house,
Just one look, they can't get them out,
Just one look, now where's your Panzerfaust, motherfuckers.
TIME IS BLOOD! Just four steps away from death.
