

The Fear Inside

Tank

A bottom line decision you're in the field of vision a cut means an incision somewhere...
We're not in your division a lie, a politician you get what you are given so there...
There's nothing to see here a life without religion a crash without collision
A laugh without derision nowhere, a sense of style is driven
Four miles are never ridden, to a good home a kitten I don't care
Without love you are one without God you're none not allowed to have any fun
The fear inside...Right here inside...The fear inside...Right here, inside
The underneath is hidden the hand that feeds is bitten an ancient aunt, bedridden
Don't stare, forgive the unforgiven know every word that's written
The naked eye that's smitten do I care? Without love you are one
Without God you're none not allowed to have any fun

(2x)

Oh shoo shoo. The fear inside... Right here inside

The Fear Inside... Right here inside (2x)

A how, how, how, how
