

When All Hell Freezes Over

Tank

I feel my heart pumping through my skin now I've got the hunger
, killing begins
You don't have to tell me where I went wrong you don't have to tell me
Where I belong
Can they still love me with their heads blown away what it was
is not what it seems
Let's put it down to a run of bad dreams
I'm blue in the face from screaming out loud
But I won't give in, never I won't give in, never, I won't give in, never
So the only chance you'll get to steal my thunder
... Is when all hell freezes over, when all hell freezes over
For all these years of spilling up blood
I've fallen for something and it's not from above
You don't have to tell me the enemy's strong
You don't have to tell me 'cause I'm already gone
Can they still love me with their heads blown away what it was
is not what it seems
Let's put it down to a run of bad dreams
I'm blue in the face from screaming out loud
But I won't give in, never I won't give in, never, I won't give
in, never
So the only chance you'll get to steal my thunder
... Is when all hell freezes over, when all hell freezes over
It's hard enough to keep your feet on the ground
They run you out of luck let you swim and then drown
They realise their mistake you don't have to look in their eyes
To see they're filled with hate...
But I survive with the hunger there ain't nothing on this Earth to put me under
When all hell freezes over, when all hell freezes over
