Chains In Your Face

Tankard

Danger! Danger! They kill without fear Without a warning you'll die tonight Hunting and killing and raping again, their only aim to take your life Die, die! Brutal gangs of death Innocent victims they like to kill Fear, fear! We know their cruelty Hope never to meet them

Death - is real tonight
Chains - you have no chance
Death - is real tonight
Blood - is what they need
Chains, chains (In your face)

Fight, fight! Answer their aggressions
Take the weapons and defend yourself
Hunting and killing and raping again, their only aim to take your life
Kill, kill! The time has come Hope, hope! We dance on their graves
Now they've payed for their brutal murders
