

Slipping From Reality

Tankard

I, born into a circle
I will lose not my way
I give my best by trying
I have a lot to say

Searching! I'm trying! The fear of failure
Succeed before I die
I feel the pressure on me
I've lost my mind today

Slipping from reality
Living for the Great Escape
Slipping from reality
Looks like it may be too late

Lord, gonna call upon you
I need your help today
Why do you fail to answer?
I'll find another way

Searching! I'm trying! Resignation
I hold my bottle high
I feel my self-worth dying
With eyes closed and a sigh

Slipping from reality
Living for the Great Escape
Slipping from reality
Looks like it may be too late

I, born into a circle
I will lose not my way
I give my best by trying
I have a lot to say

Searching! I'm trying! The fear of failure
Succeed before I die
I feel the pressure on me
I've lost my mind today

Slipping from reality
Living for the Great Escape
Slipping from reality
Looks like it may be too late
Slipping from reality
Living for the Great Escape
Slipping from reality
Looks like it may be too late
