

All Of Me

Tanlines

Worn out faces
Hanging on the wall
Foreign places
Names you still recall

You said laugh to yourself
Why you just don't care
Say the things no one else
Will ever dare

So pardon me for asking, pardon me for thinking
Pardon me for asking, pardon me for thinking
All of me is asking, all of me is thinking
All of me is asking, all of me is thinking

She said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
Do what you come to

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
I get all of you

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
Do what you come to

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
I get all of you

So you lie to yourself
While you're just not scared
All the things that you felt
Were always there

So pardon me for asking, pardon me for thinking
Pardon me for asking, pardon me for thinking
All of me is asking, all of me is thinking
All of me is asking, all of me is thinking

She said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
Do what you come to

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
I get all of you

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
Do what you come to

Said lie when you need it
Cut off emotions
I get all of you
