Another Moment

Tanya Donelly

All your friends have changed Another moment too soon for you The angle shifts again Another moment too soon Now it's time to take a walk Now it's time to take the walk you've been side-slipping

Time to move your sorry bones up off the floor Time to rise above your situation Time to make sure the current pauses at your door Time to seek your own level baby

Amazing things have strayed within your reach Are you unfazed and unimpressed by all you could have had with ease Amazing things have strayed within your reach Another moment too soon for you Now it's time to take the walk you've been side-slipping

Time to move your sorry bones...

So what if you come undone on your way to the sun Your home-made kite melts down and out of sight You'll find that your arms are fine and strong and move you alo ng And not a moment too soon

Time to move your sorry bones...
