Fallout

Tanya Donelly

Honey, won't you let yourself speak free?
Honey, won't you let yourself speak freely?
'Cause you're scaring me now
Scaring me

Everything is pouring out of me now
I spread my hands to catch it
But there's too much and there it goes

And we thought we'd fool 'em all
We thought we'd fool 'em all
And ha ha ha
But there's too much and there it goes

And I can't stop the fallout after all

Honey, I want you
I still want you
I always do, I always will
Is that enough? 'Cause here we go

And I can't stop the fallout
I can't stop the fallout after all
