

To The Lighthouse

Tanya Donnelly

Leave a light on, lightkeeper
Leave a light on, lightkeeper
'Cause I think I'm coming in again
Yeah I think I'm coming in again
And I need your light to find mine
So leave a light on

I caught the falling star
But lost the hand
I pulled the princess and
Held back the hordes
That clamored for her
Didn't think i'd have to die for the girl

Leave a light on, lightkeeper
Leave a light on

Seven sisters seven stars
Shooting home
Shouts and whispers of a better fight
In better times
And I am touched by the kindness
Of a good lie

And I think I'm coming in again
Yeah I think I'm coming in again
And I am touched by
I am touched
I am touched by the kindness
