I Won't Take Less Than Your Love

Tanya Tucker

"How much do I owe you?" said the husband to his wife, "For standing beside me through the hard years of my life. "Shall I bring you diamonds, shall I buy you furs? "Say the word and it's yours. And his wife said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet lov е. "No, I won't take less than your love. "All the riches of the world could never be enough, "And I won't take less than your love." "How much do I owe you?" to the mother said the son. "For all that you have taught me in the days that I was young. "Shall I bring expensive blankets to cast upon your bed? "And a pillow for to rest your weary head." And the mother said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet l ove. "No, I won't take less than your love. "All the comforts of the world could never be enough, "And I won't take less than your love." "How much do I owe you?" said the man to his Lord. "For giving me this day and every day that's gone before. "Shall I build a temple, shall I make a sacrifice? "Tell me Lord and I will pay the price." And the Lord said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet lov е. "No, I won't take less than your love. "All the treasures of the world could never be enough, "And I won't take less than your love." "I won't take less than your love, sweet love. "No, I won't take less than your love. "All the treasures of the world could never be enough, "And I won't take less than your love."

"No, I won't take less than your love."
