Love Knows We Tried

Tanya Tucker

It's time to pack up all the dreams and walk away No matter what our hearts might say Now we know we're at the end of a love So it's foolish to pretend, why try

We cried clinging to each other tenderly We were the best that we could be Through the sweet and gentle years And now after all these tears we cried

Love knows we tried

Love knows we tried

We gave it all we had and more

Love knows we tried

We've got the memory and someday we may see

Goodbye doesn't mean we really didn't try So you can hold your head up high And as I walk away from you knowing well We did all that we could do inside

Love knows we tried
Oh, love knows we tried
Love knows we tried
Love knows we tried
