

1 Nite Stand

Taproot

ive come to grips on reality through fatality realized just how much happiness brings to me fight lately doubt and worries inflicted my mind with an illness of e go the worst of it's kind been so busy unhappy un nerved
i can see my destiny is chasing me I am finally happy and ready to go I had a one nite stand with myself last night the fright of a lifetime once again i have proven my strength to myself on my own
