

Facepeeler

Taproot

I've been waiting for you
To show your face as a clue Living disgrace my eyes are burnt and my ears are tired of all these screams

So I run the truth is falling you're the one sent to kill me

Several days in a mood
Since there's no way to elude
What can I say my skin's a lie and my heart is broke from all t hese lies why

So I run the truth is falling you're the one sent to kill me (It's so wrong that death is haunting now I'm gone to self infl icting)
