You look like me
I'm sorry for you
You talk like me
I cant understand you
You think like me
You're fucking crazy
You want to be me
But that's ok because

You remind me of me
Someway
But only the good
Cause I'm just me

Hanging by a thread for your honor
Just helps me to see inside myself
Hanging by a thread for your honor
Just helps me to see...

You act like me
Cause you're embarrassing
You talk to me
But don't listen
You think like me
You're so damn crazy
You want to be me
But that's ok because...

You remind me of me
Someway
But only the good
Cause I'm just me

Hanging by a thread for your honor
Just helps me to see inside myself
Hanging by a thread for your honor
Just helps me too see...

When these memories become liquid dreams just like fantasies
And like fallen leaves I guess all
I need is to find my desires and set out to acquire them

You look like me
I'm sorry for you
You think like me
But that's ok because...

You remind me of me
Someway
But only the good
Cause I'm just me

Hanging by a thread for your honor
Just helps me to see inside myself

Just helps me to see inside myself
