

No View Is True

Taproot

We don't have to see, eye to eye, as long as we get along
We don't have to hear, ear to ear, as long as it's a great song
, playing
Different strokes for different folks, if

I've found no religion, but I still have faith
I've made some decisions, but I'm following my fate
I'm not so indifferent, everyone is the same
We're all just opinions, that extinguish the flame
No opinion, since no view is true
We don't have to feel, an eye for an eye
What we take can be a mistake
We don't have to sense, 666
When we can manifest hate, laughing
Different pokes, from different jokes
No view is true
