

Release Me

Taproot

Why rise and shine, another 21 hours ruined by my voice
Fine gift of mine, offensive cloudiness showers though not by choice, yet
Not just unrelatable, just Release me, from what I've done
Tying the binds, a bitter will still empowers, but wont fill the void
Blind by design, another stellar potential view has been destroyed, again
Not just unattainable
I've let down what I care for most, it's hypocritical, and unforgivable
Lock me up when I'm intentional, and unpredictable, not forgettable, please
