

With so many unknowns, the many things we've lost It's hard to find an example, worth defending the cost With so many unknowns, in our future's past Emerging from the shadows, let's take our lives back You're not alone, in this fantasy It's terrifying but it's not supposed to be We've clung to many, we've paved some roads
But at the end of the day, we need to break down every door tha t's fucking closed
We tend to walk the shadows, it's getting cold and we've been s pread too thin
Emerging from the shadows, survival's sake now next of kin Daylight savings all around me, pockets posing, ashes falling d own
It's not disturbing see, that all we've got to say if it's best to do yourself, then the answer lies in me Oh, it's okay, we've found it out before We've got control back now, like it was meant to be

We're not the problem, we're not the cure
But at the end of the day, we need to break down every motherfu cking door
The answer lies in me
