

Higher

Tara MacLean

If I could spend my life in awe
Of everything I ever saw
You'd be the one to lift me up
Higher than I am
If the sky came crashing down
You'd be the only star I found
Of all those scattered on the ground
I'd hold you in my hand
Higher
Higher
Higher than I am
So this is where I want to be
From now until eternity
A shepherd of the soul to me
And I will be the lamb
Higher
Higher than I am
I see you sleeping now
Invincible and golden
There's nowhere else to go from here
Higher
Higher
Higher than I am
