

Calling Grace

Tarja Turunen

In the dark
Captured in his frozen heart
Colours fade into grey
She tried so hard
Every word was torn apart
Shot her down with poisoned darts

Her tears made a swim beneath the sea
She's free

Calling grace
She'll never fall again
Love remains in her

Softly, her inner voice has learned to speak
Following her dreams

Her tears made a swim beneath the sea
She's free

Calling grace
She'll never fall again
Love remains in her

Calling grace
She will rise again
Sacrifice the saints
Still love remains
