

Deliverance

Tarja Turunen

Dreams go on forever
With only one life
You cannot relive
What you gave me never

Fear of being hurtful
Feelings left unspoken
I'm breaking myself out with tears
Through the years
Into you

I find myself in love
The fall of you defining me
I'm always home with
Her as a shield
You are me

Far away to heaven
I run with the wind
That's how I begin
Road to my deliverance
Paved with my desire
Breathing air like fire
I start to give in
My last war

Where I can't walk you carry me
From now into eternity
Into you

I find myself in love
The fall of you defining me
I'm always home with
Her as a shield
You are me

I found the world through love
The door of hope you cannot see
Army of one is waiting to be
You are me
