

In for a Kill

Tarja Turunen

Where do you go from here?
It's dragging you under
Nothing could be more clear
When you are the hunter
Is that a dream to die for?
A prize
You keep it
Out of the light

Nothing can shine
Left in the dark
Far from their eyes
Under black water
There is no halo
Only the hunger
And you're in for a kill

You and your twisted mind
It's making us shiver
How can we be so blind
The fear you deliver
It's all a grand illusion
A trick
You keep it
Out of the light

Nothing can shine
Far from their eyes
Under black water
There is no halo
Only the hunger
And you're in for a kill

It's all a grand illusion
A trick
You keep it
Out of the light

Nothing can shine
Far from their eyes
Under black water
There is no halo
Only the hunger
And you're in for a kill
And you're in for a kill

Under black water
There is no halo
Only the hunger
And you're in for a kill
