

Lost Northern Star

Tarja Turunen

I'm the one who leaves shadows in you room at night
I'm the reason you're listening enlightening your eyes
When Pan meets Apollo down with the sin
They will send tears of angels though kindness won't win

Lost northern star
Buried in sorrow
I'll guard your mind
Let demons howl outside

Where the calm fields of snow become one with the sky
I am there; I am waiting as time passes by
I set up the weather to suit how you feel
Drop rain down with wishes, build grace out of steel

Lost northern star
Buried in sorrow
I'll guard your mind
Let demons howl outside

(My soul burns
My soul burns)

Sending dream flakes your way
Painting pictures to help you each day
Yet you don't know I'm there

Lost northern star
Buried in sorrow
I'll guard your mind
Let demons howl outside

(My soul burns)
