Lost Northern Star

Tarja Turunen

I'm the one who leaves shadows in you room at night I'm the reason you're listening enlightening your eyes When Pan meets Apollo down with the sin They will send tears of angels though kindness won't win

Lost northern star Buried in sorrow I'll guard your mind Let demons howl outside

Where the calm fields of snow become one with the sky I am there; I am waiting as time passes by I set up the weather to suit how you feel Drop rain down with wishes, build grace out of steel

Lost northern star Buried in sorrow I'll guard your mind Let demons howl outside

(My soul burns My soul burns)

Sending dream flakes your way Painting pictures to help you each day Yet you don't know I'm there

Lost northern star Buried in sorrow I'll guard your mind Let demons howl outside

(My soul burns)
