

Never Enough

Tarja Turunen

Life in bloom the sweetest season
The warm embrace gave me the meaning
Another time a cross to carry
Cruel facade imaginary
I don't belong

There's no going back what we used to be
There's no room for us, no place for me

Never enough, never enough
No, never enough, never enough
I gave it all, you still want more

A child's game the search for reason
A coldest day and I stopped believing
Another war, my endless laughter
A storyline is all they're
After I don't belong

There's no going back what we used to be
There's no room for us, no place for me

Never enough, never enough
No, never enough, never enough
I gave it all, you still want more
