

The Living End

Tarja Turunen

It's the song that's forever
There's no need to surrender

Here with you now
Light's in the air devoted
Now is today
Dying to live this moment

Growing stronger
Taking over

Truth in your eyes
See through my heart - it's open
Make me believe
Gives life to path of chosen

Blind desire
Reaching higher

It's the song that's forever in the flame within
The living end
There's no need to surrender
I will sing with it
The living end

Sun is like colors
Raining down
Burning up the night

It's the song that's forever in the flame within
The living end
There's no need to surrender
I will sing with it
The living end

The living end
