

The Reign

Tarja Turunen

I see the waves of sand Big free
Another land
Dreams within dreams
You are alive
They gave me their wings
I spread them wide

I'll move on to another place
from my memories
unmade
I'll hold on and my heart will find you there love will shine free

Sun flames
And moons glow Timeless the tides will flow
What will I face what will be mine Fortune and fate
The other side

I'll move on to another place
from my memories
I'll hold on
and my heart will find you there
love will shine free
