

Come Closer

Tarkan

A wind is blowing and a fire's loose
I couldn't find the words to call a truce
And tore the temple down to let the spirit rise...ooo

In the sound of the storm
I can hear just one voice

All over
Let us all come closer

There is nowhere to touch that doesn't hurt
There is nowhere that I can't look that isn't blurred
With all the righteousness and all the holy words...ooo

In the sound of the storm
I can hear just one voice

All over
When the heart sinks lower
And the healing slower
Let us all come over

I need a hand for
A thread of peace and a seed of hope
I will raise my eyes to see more
Speak a truth and we shall know...ooo

In the light of one choice
We will sing with one voice

All over
When the heart sinks lower
And the healing slower
Let us all come over

That is where we are
That is who we are
That is all we are
