

Born Into The Flame

Tarot

So many faces
but you know there's only mine that carries the traces, that mark us the same We've been losers,
but there's always a chance to be the one of the choosers, to be proud of your name

We've got the hearts of ice Part of it is just a make believe, but sometimes lies can be made up too real So choose your side by the things you are out to achieve, you cannot hide or your heart's never gonna heal

Don't you see, this world was made for you and me, it's time to change our history

We were born into the flame, how does it feel We were born into the flame, you know its real

There's a dream we share A dream we made our own and we will be there, where it rises to shine

This is the time, this is the place, start living right now, right here Don't lose your faith, we're in the race just wait for the price to appear

We were born into the flame...
