

Follow Me Into Madness

Tarot

Look at me, I'll create you a dream
Reality escapes or so it may seem
But truth is only what you believe
I'll give you faith without deceit

I'll make you forget
Your desposal and hatred
I'll give you my love
You'll keep it sacred
You must believe
My heart is made of gold
So will be yours
When the sold within is sold

Purple echoes, screaming height
Fossilized thoughts, second sight
Follow me into madness

Beyond the gates we will need no sun
My work of salvation burns to be done
We'll share the power
I draw from my master
Coldness of stars
Spreading faster and faster

Unliving shadows, breaking free
Those born again can be made to see
Follow me into madness

Come my child, there is beauty to be found
In the timeless crypts
There is no sky no ground
In my mind the road is straight and clear
Oh how wonderful is the feeling of fear

Open my veins to satisfy your thirst
Have my flesh, pure but accursed
Dying can be greatest ecstasy
Burning passion for lengthened agony
Follow me into madness

How they stare at you
Behind a window in the door
You're tied up in a helpless rage
You'll have to break out
You can't take this anymore
There is no other way out of this cage
