

You're staring through the windows of my eyes.
But the curtains are closed.
Your whisper's drowned under voices in my head.
And I can't care 'cause

I am GONE.
I've sailed my dreams to Babylon.
Save your dreams 'cause
I am GONE.

What comes unseen still becomes too real
Some wounds don't need to heal.
All that's unreal just feels better to me.
And now I'm safe 'cause

I am GONE.
I've sailed my dreams to Babylon.
Save your dreams 'cause
I am GONE.
I've sailed my dreams to Babylon.
Save your dreams 'cause
I am GONE.

The words don't make it good,
The pills never made me see.
If there would be a better way for me to be.

The towers of my nightmares,
The city of my dreams.
I'm drawn to you with love and loathing.
This is my home and here I'll stay.
Now and forever.
