

Hell Knows

Tarot

You may find me lying on some desert road
My eyes wide open to the universe
And what lies there is just something I left behind

And I move on, but where only hell knows
Only hell knows me
only hell knows
Only hell knows me

You may find me laughing in a haunted house
Drawing strange runes to the air and dust
And here inside of me theres a long forgotten key

To understand whats there, but only hell knows
Only hell knows me
only hell knows
Only hell knows me

You may find me crying in the closet of your room
What ghosts know only is how to come back
My prison will claim me again and again

And take me, don't know where
Only hell knows
Only hell knows me
Only hell knows
Only hell knows me
Only hell knows
Only hell knows me
Only hell knows
Only hell knows me
