

I Don't Care Anymore

Tarot

Somewhere in the night
The visions come to me
And I dream of home
Those dreams won't set me free
The road is made of eternity
And I know that it's too late
Too late to change my way
Too late to alter my fate

I always lie to myself again
I don't care anymore
Why do I have these dreams
Don't care anymore
Please set me free

There's something inside of me
Something you could not see
It makes me do the things the way I do
And it won't let me be
I just can't escape
The memories of you haunting me
This silhouette sharpened by the moon
The tears that run to the sea

To keep away the pain
I'll have to lie to myself again
I don't care anymore
Why do I have these dreams
Don't care anymore
Please set me free
