

Lady Deceiver

Tarot

My thirst for you helps you to do me wrong
I'm afraid of you, it makes me strong
Promises of sin in a wink of an eye
Deceiving me again, I wish you would die

Keep me in chains when you go around
Still when you come
I crawl before you on the ground
Lady Deceiver

I don't know which one I lust for more
Your body or your blood all over me
In your cage I rage at the door
Opening my mind for sweet insanity

I want to crush you under my weight
You've made me mad
By being an ultimate bait
Lady Deceiver

From desire I cannot be relieved
I've forgotten the god in which I believed
All the things you say are just lies
Wish I were able to claw out your eyes

I want to crush you under my weight
You've made me mad
By being an ultimate bait
Lady Deceiver
Claw your black heart out
