

Pharao

Tarot

They knew about the curse but didn't mind
Blew up my tomb, robbed gold under my sign
I have to follow them for my pride
I'll get the peace, when they are mine

They will be dead, I'll be free
There is nothing that could save them from me
I'll wait in the shadows, those they can not flee
The death is only a way to feel
The Pharao's revenge

They don't see my shade near by the door
Now it's time to take what I have come for I'll burn their souls for shaming my sign
I'll get the peace when they are mine
