

If I Ever Love Again

Tatyana Ali

how many times can i die? how many times can i break inside? how many times can i pray? oh lord to take this pain away he was the song in my soul but now that song will never play instead a silence now falls over me how many tears have i felt? (i felt) before i learned to forgive myself (forgive myself) hoow many trials can i face before i start to lose my faith how many hearts have to mend before the poet rhymes again cause the feeling of you comforts me

(1):
if i ever love again, it would be with you again cause there's nothing that i can do to, baby, keep me away from you
if i ever love again it would be with you again cause my life is not complete baby til youre here with me how many times did i try to hold you near when you said goodbye (goodbye) how many times did you judge before you knew who i really was you were the fire in my day but now the flame has burned away and only shades of the past call on me

(Repeat 1)

if i ever love again

(Repeat 1)

i can't help myself
i want you and no one else and baby thats the way i fell over you
i cant help myself
and baby thats the way i fell over you
baby til you're here with me
