

End Of The Line

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

If you're my friend
Stay right by my side
Show me something good at the end of the line

If you're the one
Look into my eyes
Show me something good at the end of the line

I've been walking over
The bridges that burn
You keep talking
But you don't say a word

If you're my friend
Stay right by my side
Show me something good at the end of the line

I've been walking over
The bridges that burn
You keep talking
But you ain't said a word

I don't want to see with someone else
I don't want to see you alone
Did you heart deceive you
Did you open up, just to let me go

In the end
Will your star still shine
Show me something good at the end of the line

When darkness ends
Will you be my light
Show me something good at the end of the line

I've been walking over
The bridges that burn
You keep talking
But you don't say a word

If you're my friend
Stay right by my side
Show me something good at the end of the line
