

Brighter Days

Taylor Henderson

Watch the light running wild and free;
Paint the sky with your hopes and dreams.
Dance with the sunlight, each day brings a life,
so I can be with you.

But if you're out on your own
with no place to call home,
just remember you're not alone.
And when you're caught in the deep,
I will hear your heart beat
as we picture the great unknown.

We can chase the brighter days,
When our hearts are wide awake.
Leave the rain with yesterday,
so you can chase the brighter days.
Oh we will chase the brighter days.
Oh you can chase the brighter days.

When all the clouds hang above your head,
Don't you dare let the shadows win.
Dance with the sunlight, each day brings a new life,
so I can be with you.

But if you're out on your own
with no place to call home,
just remember you're not alone.
And when you're caught in the deep,
I will hear your heart beat
as we picture the great unknown.

We can chase the brighter days,
when our hearts are wide awake.
Leave the rain with yesterday,
so you can chase the brighter days.
Oh, we will chase the brighter days.
Oh, you can chase the brighter days.

Ohh oh oh woah oh oh oh woah woah oh oh.
Ohh oh oh woah oh oh oh
You can chase the brighter days.

We can chase the brighter days,
when our hearts are wide awake.
Leave the rain with yesterday,
so you can chase the brighter days.
We can chase the brighter days,
when our hearts are wide awake.
Leave the rain with yesterday,
so you can chase the brighter days.

Ohh oh oh woah oh oh oh woah woah oh oh.
The brighter days.
Ohh oh oh woah oh oh oh woah.
So you can chase the brighter days.
Oh you can chase the brighter days.
