

Close To Nothing

Taylor Henderson

Perfect, perfect always scared me
Taught me to be wary, kept me on guard
Cold feet, even though your fire
Always seems to light my fear of the dark

You're just too good to be true
Oh my my
If my love, you only knew
That my mind

It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
From all that I have
And all that I can lose
It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
Only fall deep
That's why I keep close
Close to nothing

Arrows, shooting for my heart
Would leave me counting scars if I let them sink in Darling, if I could face my fears
I'd always have you here underneath my skin

You're just too good to be true
Oh my my
If my love, you only knew
That my mind

It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
From all that I have
And all that I can lose
It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
Only fall deep
That's why I keep close
Close to nothing
To the fear
Close to nothing

There's something wrong with me
I can barely speak
I'm looking at an angel as the heart falls off my sleeve
If I had you close
It's not enough
In my head I'm running scared, I've given up

It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
From all that I have
And all that I can lose
It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
Only fall deep
That's why I keep close

Close to nothing
Run, run, run
From all that I have
And all that I can lose

It's telling me to run
Run, run, run
Only fall deep
That's why I keep close
To the fear
Close to nothing
To the fear
