

Sail Away

Taylor Henderson

You sail away in the night but you don't leave home
With a tide so strong I still hold on
Will your heart keep beating through the storm?
I know you sail away in the night but you don't leave home
You don't leave home (woah)
You don't leave home (woah)

Are you making up a case for a keeping me?
Packing up your heart but you never leave
If you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me
I won't let you sail away from here
If it's what you want then go my dear
But if you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me (yeah)

Far away from me now but I can't let go
Use your heart as a map and just come home
Before the waves of worry steal my heart
I know you're far away from me now but I can't let go

Are you making up a case for a keeping me?
Packing up your heart but you never leave
If you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me
I won't let you sail away from here
If it's what you want then go my dear
But if you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me
(Woah woah woah)

I love you
I want you
But my heart breaks
My heart breaks
Cause I know that
I can't have you
So my heart breaks

Are you making up a case for a keeping me?
Packing up your heart but you never leave
If you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me
I won't let you sail away from here
If it's what you want then go my dear
But if you cast your love to sea
It will lead you back to me
(Woah woah woah)
It will lead you back to me
