Christmas Must Be Something More

Taylor Swift

What if ribbons and bows didn't mean a thing? Would the song still survive without five golden rings? Would you still wanna kiss without mistletoe? What would happen if God never let it snow? What would happen if Christmas carols told a lie? Tell me what would you find

You'd see that today holds something special Something holy, not superficial So here's to the birthday boy who saved our lives It's something we all try to ignore And put a wreath up on your door So here's something you should know that is for sure Christmas must be something more

What if angels did not pay attention to All the things that we wished they would always do? What if happiness came in a cardboard box? Then I think there is something we all forgot What would happen if presents all went away? Tell me what would you find

You'd see that today holds something special Something holy, not superficial So here's to the birthday boy who saved our lives It's something we all try to ignore And put a wreath up on your door So here's something you should know that is for sure Christmas must be something more

We get so caught up in all of it Business and relationships Hundred mile an hour lives And it's this time of year And everybody's here It seems the last thing on your mind

Is that the day holds something special Something holy, not superficial? So here's to Jesus Christ who saved our lives It's something we all try to ignore And put a wreath up on your door But here's something you should know that is for sure Christmas must be something Christmas must be something Christmas must be something more

There's gotta be more There's gotta be more
