

Dead By Dawn

Tear Out the Heart

I've spent the past few years
Fighting off
What's left of these demons inside my head
It's safe to say
I hate this place
But it's made me who I am today

I'd give anything
To sleep away this curse
I'd give anything
To sleep away this curse

Time heals nothing
I'm giving my all
You tell me to stand but I continue to fall
Try your best and I'll do my worst
I'd give anything to sleep away this curse
Sleep away this curse

I've spent the past few nights
Drinking off what's left
Of these nightmares that haunt me
The sun goes down
I'm wide awake with both eyes open
And my back is against the wall
Against the wall
Sleep can't come soon enough
Sleep can't come soon enough

Time heals nothing
I'm giving my all
You tell me to stand but I continue to fall
Try your best and I'll do my worst
I'd give anything to sleep away this curse
Sleep away this curse

I'd give anything
To sleep away this curse
I'd give anything
To sleep away this curse

Time heals nothing
Time heals nothing
Time heals nothing
I could never forget

I could never forget
