Tear Out the Heart

It's time you waste away
Like the scum that you are
Yah

You can stitch my mouth shut
And you can carve out my eyes
I swear it's not just you
It's this world that I despise

This is only the beginning
Consider this a warning

I'm through with desperately searching
And patiently waiting
It's time I get what I deserve
This is an awakening
I can't even feel a goddamn thing
I can't feel anything tonight
I can't feel anything
I can't feel anything tonight
I can't feel anything

Now you can slice the tension
Use the knife that was left in my back
And you can choke on your own damn words
You never had a prime for me
To cut you down in

This is only the beginning
Consider this a warning

I'm through with desperately searching
And patiently waiting
It's time I get what I deserve
This is an awakening
I can't even feel a goddamn thing
I can't feel anything tonight
I can't feel anything
I can't feel anything tonight
I can't feel anything

There's never been
